H. Griffith, 24, son of S. H. Griffith, at his home. Griffith is an auto mechanic.

MUSICIANS DO THEIR BIT

Will Conduct Drive for Funds for Salvation Army Tree.

Several members of the Shrine band will make Christmas cheer for the poor kiddies of Tulsa possible by making their usual drive for funds for the Salvation Army Christmas tree.

The drive will be under the auspices of the Musicians' union and will be made during the entire day of December 24.

Jazz will be a feature of the occasion, and when you hear the jazz band coming down the street, get ready to drop your coin on the service flag.

Last Christmas several hundred dollars was raised by the local musicians for the Salvation Army in this manner, and an effort will be made to more than double last year's amount.

The band will be composed of Tulsa's most popular musicians, who will work in Tulsa throughout the entire day, making up small combinations. This will make it possible for every musician in Tulsa to do his "bit."

PRODUCING FIRM WINS SUIT

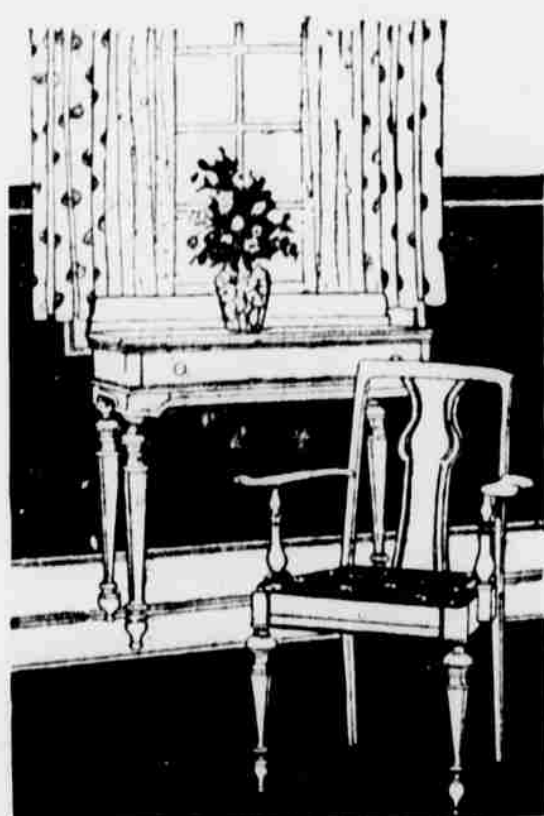

Judge Owen Rules That Lessee Did Not Fulfill Contract.

Verdict for the plaintiff by order of the court was returned in district court yesterday at the conclusion of the testimony in the suit of the Tulsa Producing company against J. W. Sanders, J. M. Gaff, J. H. Haley and others in which clear title to oil property in 24 1/2 1/2, Tulsa county, was sought by the plaintiff.

The oil lease was issued by the plaintiff to Gaff and others under an agreement whereby the latter were to develop the lease. It is claimed by the plaintiff that this agreement was not fulfilled by these defendants, and that the lease and all title to the property reverted to the plaintiff. Judge Owen took the view of the matter and in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.
